

Community Board Nomination Form

To submit a nomination for the Materials Horizons or Nanoscale Horizons Community Board, please send this nomination form to the Editorial Office at materialshorizons-rsc@rsc.org alongside a brief C.V. of the candidate.

Candidate details

Name
Email
Job title/position
Affiliation
Candidate research group
PhD year (if applicable)
Website (if applicable)

Which journal does the candidate most identify with?

Materials Horizons

Nanoscale Horizons

No preference

Nominator details

Name
Email
Job title/position
Affiliation

Candidate personal statement (500 words max):

A short personal statement from the candidate describing what they will bring to the role in terms of advising and being an advocate for the journal.

Nominator supporting statement (500 words max):

A supporting statement from the nominator (no more than 500 words) addressing the selection criteria: profile within institute and/or community, service to the community, area and quality of research and motivation to join the Community Board.